

PUBLIC NOTICE

Public consultation

City council public question period

This spring, the Commission de la présidence du conseil will go out to meet with Montrealers during a mobile public consultation to discuss, in an informal and interactive manner, the procedures regarding the city council public question period, held once a month at city hall, in Old Montréal.

Citizens and organizations are invited to take part in any of the four meetings listed below, which will be held in different areas of the city, with a less formal information sharing formula for the hearing of opinions and briefs. Please note that presentations may be creative (slam, poem, song, drawing, sketch, etc.) or traditional (letters of opinion or briefs) and presented by one, two or three people, or even a group.
