

PUBLIC REVIEW

Draft Parking Policy for Montréal

The Commission sur le transport et les travaux publics invites the population to participate in a public consultation regarding the city's draft Parking Policy. First and foremost, this consultation will provide the opportunity for the Service de la mise en valeur du territoire to present an assessment of the current state of parking in the city and to outline the draft policy. Citizens and representatives of organizations and institutions will then be invited to share with the committee their opinions with respect to the content of the proposed Parking Policy. The public consultation will be held as follows:
