

Société de développement commercial (SDC)

A société de développement commercial (commercial development association) is a non-profit association with a mission to promote economic development in a specific area. Taxpayers who operate a business establishment in a district overseen by a commercial development association are automatically members of that association. The mandatory contribution is determined by regulation based on the annual budget adopted by the members.

Requests to alter the area

Requests to alter the area of the business establishment must be submitted to the Service des finances within 60 days after the account is mailed.
