PUBLIC REVIEW

Impacts of Canada Post's decision to eliminate home mail in urban areas for the population of Montréal

The Commission sur le développement social et la diversité montréalaise will hold a public meeting on the impacts of Canada Post's decision to eliminate home mail in urban areas for the population of Montréal.

This consultation will allow the Direction de la diversité sociale, the Direction de l'urbanisme and the Direction des travaux publics to present the information available regarding the installation of community mailboxes in densely populated urban areas, as well as their analysis of the situation. The members of the commission wish to learn more about the impacts of the elimination of home mail delivery for the citizens of Montréal, especially regarding seniors and persons with disabilities or reduced mobility concerned by:

- the consequences of this decision;
- the location of the community mailboxes (installation, accessibility, parking, traffic, safety);
- the maintenance of community mailboxes (cleanliness, snow removal, lighting).

The first public meeting is scheduled to take place as follows:

TIME 7 P.M.
DATE Tuesday, December 9, 2014 – Presentation and question period
PLACE 1550, rue Metcalfe, 14th floor / Peel metro station www.stm.info

ACCESSIBILITY (1444, RUE METCALFE)

Persons with reduced mobility may use the entrance located at 1444, rue Metcalfe, corner of De Maisonneuve, for the meeting scheduled for December 9, 2014. A representative of the Service du greffe will be on site from 6:15 p.m. to guide you to the 14th floor of the building.

Additional meetings are scheduled to take place in 2015:

TIME 7 P.M.
DATES Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 19, 20 and 21, 2015 – Presentation of briefs and hearing of comments
JANUARY 12, 2015: Deadline for registration if you wish to present a brief
Tuesday, February 17, 2015 – Adoption of recommendations
PLACE City hall, council chamber, 275, rue Notre-Dame Est / Champ-de-Mars metro station www.stm.info

ACCESSIBILITY (CITY HALL)

Persons with reduced mobility may use the west side entrance (Place Vauquelin). The room is equipped with a hearing aid system that can be accessed by tuning in to 100.3 FM on your portable player.

Moreover, an interpretation service for persons with a hearing disability is available on request, subject to the availability of interpreters.

Citizens and organization representatives who wish to speak during the public question and comment period should register during the 30 minutes preceding the meeting, or contact the Direction du greffe as of today. Please note that registration is not required in order to attend public meetings. Only those wishing to speak need register.

Documents regarding this public review are available for consultation at Accès Montréal offices, all borough offices and city halls, the Service du greffe as well as online at: www.ville.montreal.qc.ca/commissions.
