PUBLIC CONSULTATION

Towards a social development policy

The Commission sur le développement social et la diversité montréalaise invites the public to participate in a public consultation concerning the social development policy draft. This consultation will start with a public information session on November 15, 2016, at city hall.

City representatives are presently working on the development of this policy. Their objectives are namely to identify the guidelines for actions to be taken over the next few years, as well as to promote coherency in interventions between the city and its partners. This consultation aims at providing the city with a new policy in 2017.

There are two ways of participating in this consultation:

- By immediately completing the survey online at: realisonsmtl.ca/devsocial. The answers to this survey will constitute a platform for discussion among the members of the committee, a first for a Montréal standing committee!
- By presenting a brief or opinion to the committee, at one of the public meetings scheduled in early 2017.

The public meetings are scheduled as follows. Please note the changing locations for this touring consultation:
