PUBLIC MEETING
Presentation of the report on racial bias in police stops

By the Commission de la sécurité publique

The Commission de la sécurité publique will hold a public discussion on the report on racial bias in police stops titled "Les interpellations policières à la lumière des identités racisées des personnes interpellées".

The presentation will be held as follows:

Date	Friday, November 22, 2019
Time	9 a.m.
Place	Lucien-Saulnier building, council chamber, 155, rue Notre-Dame Est, 2nd floor / Champ-de-Mars metro station

The meeting will begin with a presentation of the report by the SPVM and the researchers. Then, Myrlande Pierre, Vice-President of the Commission des droits de la personne et des droits de la jeunesse, will comment on the report based on the recommendations of the committee on racial and social profiling. Ms. Pierre's remarks will be followed by a public question period and a question period for committee members.

Anyone who wishes to take part in the public question and comment period is invited to register as of today by contacting the Service du greffe by phone at 514 872-3000 or by email at commissions@ville.montreal.qc.ca. You can also register on site 30 minutes before the session begins.

Accessibility
Persons with reduced mobility may use the building's front entrance (155, rue Notre-Dame Est). The room is equipped with a hearing aid system that can be accessed by tuning into 100.3 FM on your portable player. In addition, an interpretation service for persons with a hearing disability is available on request, subject to the availability of interpreters.

Documentation
The documents related to this public meeting are available at the Service du greffe and on the city's website at ville.montreal.qc.ca/commissions. The session will be webcast at the same website address.
