

L'ORDRE DE MONTRÉAL

Instructions for nominating a person

The Ordre de Montréal's call for nominations takes place this year from August 31 to October 31. Each nomination must be made by a third party and supported by two other persons.

Eligibility criteria

Nominees must meet at least one of the following criteria:

- Be born on the territory of the Montréal urban agglomeration¹
- Reside or have resided within this same territory for at least 5 years
- Carry out or have carried out professional activities within this same territory for at least 5 years.

1. Montréal's urban agglomeration consists of the 16 municipalities that form the Island of Montréal, that is, Ville de Montréal (19 boroughs) and the 15 municipalities reconstituted on January 1, 2006.

Exclusions

The following persons will not be admitted to the Ordre nor may they put forward or support a nomination:

- Elected officials, political staff, employees and managers of municipal, provincial or federal government agencies
- Members of the council of the Ordre
- Persons with a criminal conviction.

Also note that in December 2016, the Ordre de Montréal have admit all persons who previously received the title of Great Montrealer throughout the years. Before nominating a person, be sure to check that the person is not already part of the Ordre de Montréal: ville.montreal.qc.ca/ordre/en

To nominate a person

The nomination form may be completed online at: ville.montreal.qc.ca/ordre/en

Those who prefer to do so may download this interactive form and return it by e-mail. Please do not protect your final version; otherwise we will not be able to extract the necessary information. We also encourage you to complete the form online rather than print it out. Handwritten forms are discouraged.

Email address: ordre@ville.montreal.qc.ca

Documents supporting the nomination: Although not mandatory, only letters of support from the person who puts forward or supports the nomination and the candidate's résumé will be accepted as part of the nomination. The minimum delay to re-apply is two years.

Before beginning

- Make sure that the nominee meets at least one of the eligibility criteria.
- Make sure also to obtain the consent of the two persons supporting your nomination.
- Have on hand all the required information about the nominee and the two persons supporting the nomination.
- Think about documents you feel would be useful to showcase the nominee's accomplishments.

IMPORTANT:

The information requested on the form will make the analysis of the nomination file possible. This information will be handled confidentially.

Do not indicate the desired rank for the nominee. This decision rests with the council of the Ordre.

Nominations received after the closing date of the annual call for nominations, October 31, 2019, will not be considered for the ceremony on May 17, 2020. They may, however, be kept for the following year's call for nominations.
