Public meeting

Placing youth at the core of our actions

The standing committee on Montréal's social development and diversity (Commission sur le développement social et la diversité montréalaise) is inviting Montrealers to take part in a public meeting for the adoption of recommendations. Over the past year, the standing committee has reviewed what the city has to offer to its youth and has formulated proposals aiming to take into account its population ranging in age between 12 and 25 years as part of its actions. Interested citizens may participate as follows:

Date and time: Tuesday, November 28, 2023 at 6 p.m.

Location: Council chamber, Montréal city hall (Lucien-Saulnier building)
155, rue Notre-Dame Est, Montréal (Québec) H2Y 1B5

Live webcast: The live webcast and recording of this public meeting will be available at: <https://tinyurl.com/564pr8wd>

The draft recommendations and forms to submit questions or comments will be available on the day of the meeting, starting at 9 a.m. at <https://tinyurl.com/564pr8wd>.

Accessibility

- The Lucien-Saulnier building has a ground-floor entrance, an automatic door, parking space and accessible washrooms.
- The council chamber is accessible to persons with reduced mobility and is equipped for hearing assistance.
- A Québec Sign Language interpreter (QSL) may be provided upon request, so long as the request is made five days prior, and provided that an interpreter is available.
- For all other inquiries, please contact the standing committee secretariat at 514 872-3000.
