

Public study of the 2025 budget and of the 2025-2034 Ten-year capital works program of Montréal, its paramunicipal organizations and the STM

The standing committee on finance and administration (Commission sur les finances et l'administration) is inviting Montrealers to take part in a public study of the 2025 operating budget and of the 2025-2034 Ten-year capital works program of Montréal, its paramunicipal organizations and the Société de transport de Montréal (STM).

Participate in the public study by submitting your questions and comments.

1 — Public study

Budget presentations

Employees of municipal departments, paramunicipal organizations and the STM will present their 2025 budget, and some will also present the 2025-2034 Ten-year capital works program.

Date: From November 21 to November 29, 2024

Location: Salle des Armoiries, Montréal city hall
275, rue Notre-Dame Est, Montréal
Place Vauquelin and Gosford Street entrances

Webcast: Watch live at: www.ville.montreal.qc.ca/etude-budget-2025

Following each presentation, there will be a public question and comment period. You may participate in the following ways:

1— By attending the sessions of your choice in person, at city hall.

2— By submitting your question or comment through the online form available at www.ville.montreal.qc.ca/etude-budget-2025. This form will be accessible prior to every session and will remain open until the beginning of the public question and comment period.

The full presentation calendar is available online or upon request at the city clerk's office (Service du greffe).

2 — Adoption of recommendations

Following the public study, the standing committee will be holding working meetings to formulate recommendations. The standing committee will then present and adopt these recommendations during a webcast public meeting.

Date and time: December 6, 2024, at 1 p.m.

Webcast: Watch live at: www.ville.montreal.qc.ca/etude-budget-2025

Draft recommendations and the question and comment form will be available on the day of the meeting, at the same address.

Accessibility

The Place Vauquelin entrance is accessible and at ground level. An accessible washroom is also available at city hall. Please note the following additional accessibility information:

- The salle des Armoiries is accessible to people with reduced mobility.
- A Langue des signes québécoise (LSQ) or American Sign Language (ASL) service may be provided upon request made five days prior, and subject to interpreter availability.

For other requests, please contact the standing committee secretariate (secrétariat des commissions permanentes) at 514-872-3000 or by email: commissions@montreal.ca.
