

Prebudget consultation for 2026

The standing committee on finance and administration (Commission sur les finances et l'administration) will be consulting Montrealers regarding the city's budget perspectives and priorities for the year 2026.

The public consultation will provide the opportunity for the population and organizations to discuss the budget with elected officials and city employees who plan the budget. The meeting provides the ideal setting for Montrealers to voice their concerns, propose their ideas and bring up issues in this regard.

For more information, visit the Web page, at www.ville.montreal.qc.ca/consultation-prebudgetaire-2026.

Step 1 — Find out more
